Law Enforcement Field Day May 22 'Safety Tips & Photos for Children'

KETCHUM, Idaho (May 13, 2014) – The annual law enforcement field day, sponsored by the Ketchum Police Department and Blaine County Sheriff, will take place at Hemingway Elementary School in Ketchum on Thursday, May 22, from 8 a.m. to noon.

Students will have a chance to talk with officers and see police equipment, including patrol cars and a marine patrol boat. Children will get goody bags, learn safety tips and have their photos taken with police officers.

“This provides us with a great opportunity to interact with the youth of our community,” Ketchum Police Chief Steve Harkins said.
