Smith Appointed to Ketchum P & Z Brings 'Financial and Legal' Experience

KETCHUM, Idaho (Jun. 2, 2014) — Attorney Erin Smith has been appointed to the Ketchum Planning & Zoning Commission by Mayor Nina Jonas.

She replaces Rich Fabiano, whose term expired.

“Smith brings both financial and legal experience, and she is eager to serve her community,” Jonas said. “She is particularly concerned about encouraging more young people to live in Ketchum.”

Smith was secretary/treasurer and CFO of Tribeca Tables Software Development, LLC in Ketchum before leaving to go to New York Law School in 2003. She previously was CFO of Bigfoot International, Inc., a holding company in New York City, and vice president of the Citibank Private Banking Group in the United Kingdom and in New York.

She served on the board of the Animal Shelter of the Wood River Valley from 2009 to 2011 and currently is a member of the board of directors of Harvey Mudd College in Claremont, Calif.

“I am extremely honored to have been appointed to Ketchum's Planning & Zoning Commission,” Smith said. “I believe my background in finance, law and entrepreneurship will complement and enhance the P&Z. I am excited to work with the other commissioners in helping advance the City's vision for the future.”

“We thank Rich Fabiano for his long service on the Commission,” Jonas added. “He worked very hard in helping to develop the Comprehensive Plan we adopted last year, and he has been particularly concerned about preserving riparian habitat and angler access to the river. We hope to continue his efforts.”

Fabiano had been on the Commission for seven years.
