

City of Ketchum

News Release
January 8, 2015

Summer Event Sponsorship Deadline is February 27
Events Must Be in First Three Years of Existence

Producers of events scheduled for June-October have until Feb. 27 to apply for grants from the Ketchum Events Commission.

The city of Ketchum offers cash grants relative to the scope and size of the event, events that are within their first three years of production and the Ketchum Events Commission's analysis of its demonstrated benefit to the city of Ketchum. Additional parameters apply. Applications for sponsorship are online at ketchumidaho.org.

Questions should be directed to Sharon Arms, arts & events coordinator, at (208) 726-7820 or sarms@ketchumidaho.org.

The Ketchum Events Commission is a nine-member city commission whose members are appointed by the mayor. Commission members are committed to furthering events for the enjoyment and economic benefit of citizens, businesses and visitors. The Commission's mission is to develop, organize and deliver events that celebrate the spirit, character, history and heroes of the city of Ketchum.
