

City of Ketchum

News Release
May 28, 2015

Please Return the Bald Mountain Lodge Sign

KETCHUM, IDAHO— Ketchum is searching for the historic Bald Mountain Lodge sign, which was taken from the longtime site of the hotel at First and Main streets earlier this month. No questions will be asked if the sign is returned to the Ketchum Police Department.

“The Bald Mountain Lodge was an important part of Ketchum's history. The owners of the Limelight Hotel planned to include it in a display of historic items for the whole community, and that is where it belongs. We hope everyone will cooperate in returning it,” Mayor Nina Jonas said.

Construction of the Limelight Hotel is expected to begin this summer on the site.

###

About the City of Ketchum

The city of Ketchum is located in the Wood River Valley in south central Idaho. Founded in 1880 during the mining boom, Ketchum is now regarded as one of the most popular destinations for winter and summer visitors due to its world-class skiing, mountain biking, fishing, hiking, restaurants, art galleries and shopping. The city of Ketchum hosts the famous annual Wagon Days Parade, held on Labor Day weekend, and numerous other year-round attractions. Ketchum is home to more than 10,000 full- and part-time residents. For more information about the city of Ketchum, visit www.ketchumidaho.org.

Contact:

Lisa Enourato
(208) 720-9766, lenourato@ketchumidaho.org

Jo Murray
(208) 726-5869, jo@jomurray.com