City Advised of 'Open-Carry' Walk
Set for Main Street on Saturday

KETCHUM, IDAHO – The Ketchum Police Department has been advised that a group carrying firearms in support of Idaho's "open-carry law" will walk along Main Street on Saturday, June 20, at 11 a.m.

No city permit is required, as long as participants remain on the sidewalks and crosswalks, City Administrator Suzanne Frick said. Police will monitor the situation, she added.
