Fall Youth Program Registration Begins With Ketchum Parks & Recreation

KETCHUM, IDAHO--Registration for fall youth recreation programs of the city of Ketchum is now open online at www.ketchumidaho.org/registration.

The After-School Program at Atkinson Park serves children currently enrolled in second through fifth grades. The program runs through the school year Monday through Friday with a variety of sign-up options. Guided supervision encourages free play and fun, active outdoor activity and creative, stimulating indoor play at "The Wreck." Cost is $630 for the school year, $88 per month or $12 per day.

Fall soccer is available to students in Kindergarten through fifth grade from mid-September through mid-October. Recreation league play teaches fundamentals of the sport. Cost is $36 for children enrolled in the after-school program and $68 for others.

The fall Swim Club is offered in two sessions, the first beginning in September and the second in October. Long time coaches Ed Flory and Maria Beattie teach swim team-type classes to elevate stroke mechanics and conditioning for children in second through ninth grades. Classes take place at the Zenergy Health Club pool and cost $75 per session.

Programs are available to all valley children and some restrictions apply. For more information, contact the parks and recreation department at 726-7820 or bnoyes@ketchumidaho.org.
