9th Annual Idaho Pond Hockey Classic Set for Jan. 16-17

Registration Closes Jan. 13

KETCHUM, Idaho — Spectators are encouraged to watch more than 30 teams from 5 states compete in the Ninth Annual Idaho Pond Hockey Classic on Saturday and Sunday, Jan. 16-17.

The event is sponsored by the city of Ketchum and is held at the Christina Potters Outdoor Ice Rink at Atkinson Park.

Cost is $180 for each six-person team, and players must be at least 18.

The beginner and intermediate division starts Saturday at 9 a.m. and the advanced division, Sunday at 10 a.m. Spots are still open in the advanced division, although the Saturday division is full. Food and beverages will be available through the competition.

“Come and watch hockey the way it originally was played – outdoors in the mountains,” said John Kearney, city recreation supervisor.

Registration closes Wednesday, Jan. 13, at www.ketchumidaho.org/registration. For additional information, contact Kearney at jkearney@ketchumidaho.org or (208) 726-7820, ext. 100.
