VARIANCE EVALUATION CRITERIA

- The strict enforcement of the provisions of this Code creates an undue hardship to the property owner; however, economic feasibility shall not be considered an undue hardship.
- The variance is necessary because of the unique size, shape, topography or location of the subject property.
- The subject property is deprived, by provision of this Code, of rights and privileges enjoyed legally by other properties in the vicinity and under an identical zone.
- The need for the variance is not the result of actions of the applicant or property owner.
- The variance does not create health and safety hazards.
- The variance does not relieve an applicant from any of the procedural provisions of this Code.
- The variance does not relieve an applicant from any standard or provision that specifically states that no variance from such standard or provision is permitted.
- The variance does not relieve an applicant from conditions established during prior permit review.
- The variance does not allow establishment of a use that is not otherwise permitted in the zone in which the subject property is located.
- The variance is the minimum necessary to grant relief to the applicant.
