Ketchum and Sun Valley Host Meetings Focused on Preparedness for Upcoming Total Solar Eclipse

KETCHUM, IDAHO – The cities of Ketchum and Sun Valley will be hosting a pair of community meetings next week to provide residents and business owners with information essential to being prepared for the total solar eclipse event.

The meetings are scheduled for Wed. Aug. 9 at 10 a.m. and again at 2 p.m. at the Community Library.

Invited speakers include representatives from Blaine County Disaster Services, the U.S. Forest Service, the Idaho Department of Commerce, Idaho Office of Emergency Management, St. Luke's Wood River Medical Center, Mountain Rides and Ketchum emergency personnel.

At the meeting, pamphlets will be made available for residents, and for business owners to share with customers and visitors during the eclipse. The pamphlets will provide critical information, from important contact information and telephone numbers to locations of public bathrooms and parking.

With so many people expected in town for the eclipse, the cities plan to do whatever possible to help residents and business owners and their customers be prepared for a variety of needs and circumstances.
